

King's Museum Exhibition:

The Land Endures: Bringing 'Sunset Song' to Life

Student-curated exhibition that explores the local heritage of North East Scotland during the first World War through Lewis Grassie Gibbon's novel 'Sunset Song'

On display In King's Museum until 3 December, Tues—Sat 11.30am—4.30pm

WWI Changing Exhibition:

University Life and World War One (Women and Medicine)

This changing display shown in King's Chapel throughout November 2016 will focus on women and medicine during World War One and the link to University of Aberdeen.